ATTACHMENT A

The device to be searched includes an Apple iPhone, Model A1532, IMEI 013896003101314.

This warrant authorizes the forensic examination of the devices for the purpose of identifying the electronically stored information described in Attachment B.

ATTACHMENT B

1. All records on the devices described in Attachment A which constitute evidence, contraband, or instrumentalities of violations of 31 U.S.C. §§ 5332 including, but not limited to:
  - a. records regarding potential persons of interest and their related identifying and contact information;
  - b. records indicating purchased, or otherwise obtained, travel reservations and their related identifying and contact information;
  - c. text messages regarding the possession, production, sale, provision, and distribution of falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered obligations or other security of the United States and fraudulent money orders;
  - d. records indicating companies or individuals involved in the request for, acquisition of, purchase, sale, manufacturing, storage, transport, receipt, concealment, or distribution of falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered obligations or other security of the United States and fraudulent money orders;
  - e. emails regarding the possession, creation, production, sale, provision and distribution of falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered obligations or other security of the United States and fraudulent money orders;
  - f. notes, photos, videos, or other electronically stored image or document regarding the possession, creation, production, sale, provision, and distribution of falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered obligations or other security of the United States and fraudulent money orders;
  - g. contact lists or phonebooks contained on the devices or in applications accessible on the devices;

- h. call lists contained on the devices or in applications accessible on the devices;
  - i. all calendar entries contained on the devices or in applications accessible on the devices;
  - j. reminders contained on the devices or in applications accessible on the devices;
  - k. a list of applications or software loaded onto the devices.
2. Evidence of who used, owned, or controlled the devices at the time the items described in this warrant were created, edited, or deleted, such as logs, registry entries, configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, documents, browsing history, user profiles, email, email contacts, "chats," instant messaging logs, phonebooks, photographs, videos, and correspondence.
3. Evidence of the presence or absence of software which would allow others to control the devices, such as viruses, Trojan horses, and other forms of malicious software, as well as evidence of the presence or absence of security software designed to detect malicious software;
4. Evidence of the attachment of the devices to other storage devices, phones, or similar containers for electronic evidence;
5. Evidence of counter-forensic programs (and associated data) that are designed to eliminate data from the devices;
6. Evidence of the times the devices were used;
7. Passwords, encryption keys, and other access devices that may be necessary to access the devices;
8. Documentation and manuals that may be necessary to access the devices or to conduct a forensic examination of the devices;
9. Records of or information about Internet Protocol addresses used by these devices;

10. Records of or information about the devices' Internet activity, including firewall logs, caches, browser history and cookies, "bookmarked" or "favorite" web pages, search terms that the user entered into any Internet search engine, and records of user-typed web addresses;

As used above, the terms "records" and "information" include all of the foregoing items of evidence in whatever form and by whatever means they may have been created or stored, including any form of computer or electronic storage (such as flash memory or other media that can store data) and any photographic form.
